

OREGON LIVESTOCK, DAIRY AND POULTRY - 2001

Production of all livestock, dairy, and poultry products in Oregon for 2001 was valued at $841.9 million. This is 7% more than 2000. The value of milk production increased $56.2 million from 2000, and was the primary source for the increase in total value.

Cattle and calves production in 2001, at $423 million, accounted for more than one half of the total value. The average price for beef cattle decreased $.10 per hundredweight and calves increased $.60 per hundredweight from the 2000 average.

The value of milk produced was $266.1 million, up 27% from 2000. The average price of all milk increased $2.70 per hundredweight from the 2000 average. The average number of milk cows increased 5,000 head from the previous year.

Hog and pig value of production increased 5% from 2000. Production of hogs and pigs increased 5% and the average price increased $.30 per hundredweight.

Sheep and lamb value of production decreased 6% from 2000. Total production increased 11% from last year. The average price of sheep increased $1.60 per hundredweight, but average lamb prices decreased to $68.20 per hundredweight. This compares to $79.40 per hundredweight in 2000.

Value of production, percent of total by species Oregon, 2001

